

The weekend and beyond

Jungle mania at Club Mist

Dieselboy, a Philly native born Damian Higgins, will bring his brand of jungle music to our shores at a concert from 9 p.m. Saturday to 4 a.m. Sunday at the newly-opened Club Mist on 1946 King St. (near the corner of King and McCully streets).

"My style is up front," Higgins said via telephone from Sacramento. He was en route to a concert in Los Angeles. The DJ said concert-goers can expect "unreleased, fresh, new and futuristic drum-n-bass."

Dieselboy will be joined by special guests Thee-O of BioHazard, LA, and MC J-Messinian. Admission for the all-ages event is $10, $15 or $20. 591-3500.
