Night notes ...

Ocean Club's Piranha Room Sin City brings in DJs Noey and Miss Joy from the Luxor Hotel's RA Nightclub for another Las Vegas-themed night of fashion and dance. The monthly still has a queue for late arrivals, so show up early. Doors open at 8 p.m. Saturday with $5 cover; $10 entry after 9 p.m.

Lion's Den takes on a last-Saturday-of-the-month residency at Indigo Eurasian Cuisine this weekend with a intriguing lineup of DJs and sonics. Liloa (dancehall/reggae), I-chard (mc/selectah), Dr. Dread (dub/jungle) and MetalX (drum-n-bass) take turns on the tables. From 9 p.m. to 2 a.m.

Got $50? That's right, $50. Singles In Town, a new magazine "about being single, celebrating it, and capturing all the finer elements of being single in Honolulu," celebrates its launch on Saturday night with a party for the just-got-paid set. The event will also offer a sneak peek at what promoter Aya promises will soon be The Top of Honolulu, a private members-only nightclub lounge in the penthouse of Century Center. Piqued? Loaded? From 9 p.m. to 2 a.m., 1730 Kalakaua Ave., 40th
