WHO/WHAT

DANCE FLOOR

Breakbeats without borders

Japanese hip-hop pioneer DJ Krush (aka Hideaki Ishii) spins this way as part of his "Stepping Stones" tour. Tokyo meets the Bronx in his jazz- and swing-injected sounds. The party, also featuring DJ G-Spot, is for those 21 and older.

9 p.m.-4 a.m. Monday / Fashion 45 / $15 advance, $20 general (note: $25 will get you into the Krush party and the Oct. 14 party headlined by Dieselboy) / www.groovetickets.com, 591-3500

CLUB-A-DUB

Deep in his culture

Jamaican roots/reggae master Edi Fitzroy ("Bad Boy," "Check For You Once" and "Princess Black") headlines this week's Get Fresh! party, which also features veteran DJ JFX from San Diego. But there's more: Three rooms will be filled with the sounds of more DJs (including G-Spot, Mark, Quiksilver, SovernT and Jahson the 45Revolver), live music and hip-hop acts. For 21 and older.

9 p.m.-2 a.m. today / Indigo Eurasian Cuisine / $10 / 591-3500

CAR CULTURE

Greased lightning

Automotive blasts from the past are on display at Cool Classic Nights, an event for classic car enthusiasts. In addition to a classic car show, there's a Car Corral where you can sell, trade or buy cars; auto-related auctions and giveaways. Entertainment includes live music by bands like Land Storm, Pacific Jam, Mahealani and Greenwood. A portion of the proceeds will go to the American Youth Center for funding clinics and programs.

4-11 p.m. today / 7-11 p.m. Saturday / Black Friday / $12 general, free for keiki / ($2 discount for members) / coolclassics.com / 479
