

Lovin' it

There is not much Daniel J. hasn't done for the local dance music scene. From being one of the first to bring top-flight talent to local dance venues, to opening the minds of clubbers past and present to the eclectic electronica sound, the Godfather of Hawai'i Dance Culture will forever be the man.

If Hawai'i ever started a dance music hall of fame, his involvement in the culture would make him the first honorary member.

The DJ and promoter, who now resides in the laidback country side of Haiku, Maui will be in town Saturday night to highlight a party at The Shop, Hawai'i's newest dance music dwelling.

In a career that spans over four decades, whenever there's a party he's always about the love, love, love.
